An evening of French delights on the shore of Krebs Lake

FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 2010 ~ 7:00 P.M.

LA POINTE-KREBS HOUSE

4602 FORT STREET ~ PASCAGOULA, MISSISSIPPI

Built circa 1718, La Pointe-Krebs House is a French Colonial treasure and the oldest building in Mississippi. For years it has been called the Old Spanish Fort, but its French Creole architecture and heritage is undeniable.

Our vision: Restoration of the house, the establishment of a museum, and a cultural community center for special events.
